Thursday Even. 10

My dear Sir, 10

I have had so many engagements, and have been in such a state of confusion, since my return to Town, that I cannot (I am ashamed to confess) recollect accurately the ~~arrangement~~ arrangements I took the liberty of making for our meeting. But I am inclined to think it was for tomorrow (Friday) morning - and lest it should be so, I write a line to say that I am obliged to go home at that time - a day earlier than I intended - and I ~~am~~ ^{should be} sorry that you should bear the journey in vain. I cannot say exactly when I shall be back - but
