

probably you might find me at home
- if not too early for your convenience - at 1/2 past 9 either on Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday morning of next week. - I hope this involuntary postponement may not risk the pleasure I should have in meeting you - but I find I cannot help myself in the matter - & now I have written in the midst of much interruption - but always remain,

Yours sincerely,

J. W. Webb
