

memo.

I am sorry to find you are so limited for time abroad. You must run for it, — and you are pretty active. But 'tis a great disadvantage. I could give you a quasi introduction to Deechi: i.e.
I know nothing of him, but as he has been pleasantly mentioned in your book. I c^d. send him a copy by you, which, ~~but~~ if you have no better prospect, might be made to serve the turn.

Donati is I think a friend of a Mr.
Drach, a M.R.S. with whom I have had a little correspondence some years
