

One reason however - at least a fact that ought to be duly allowed for - is that there are fifty poorish men for one wealthy one - & therefore the advantage, in a numerical statement, is somewhat in their favour. - Did you happen to observe how Sir W. Armstrong, who has I believe realized a great fortune, was exposed for his niggardliness at a public meeting lately? -

Mrs Webb desires her kind regards, and with mine to your Parents believe me,

Yr dear Sir,

Yours very sincerely & much obliged,

J. W. Webb.
