

I have enclosed a little note for him, just to acknowledge his letter to me - should if you please can be forwarded to him whenever you happen to be writing, but it contains nothing that will suit with your convenience.

I beg to offer my kind regards to Mrs.
Rauyard, and with many apologies for the trouble I have unfortunately caused you, I remain,

My dear Sir,

Yours very faithfully

Thos. W. Webb
