

his telescope. - I should have liked you much to have seen ♀ with mine by day. -

A lot of letters are crying for me & I must remain,

Dear Mr. Arthur,

Your very affectionate old friend

Jeffro! Mac Dydd!

Haidarck vicarage, Hay, 17 April. 1873.

(64)

My dear Mr. Arthur,

I am glad you had so pleasant a journey & am much obliged by your care of my poor people.
I will follow your instructions as well as I can. -

This morning brought me the enclosed card - I have taken the liberty of asking in reply that the copies shall be sent to your care, as they will cost nothing if sent ~~now~~ here previously. About Lord Lindsay - thank you for withholding - on further consideration I am led to doubt the entire desirability of the move - you know the old adage "flee love and it will follow thee" - it has good application in other matters as a sound rule of etiquette.

When you get the ~~two~~ copies of Burnham's Catalogue, perhaps it would save trouble if you would post them at once (I mean as soon as your convenient) to S. W. Burnham, Esq:
