My dearest Arthur,

I am very much obliged by the reference to Rusworth, which was exactly the thing I wanted: & I am happy to say it will be the very last trouble I shall give you about the old Col. who will now be all finished (except index) this week - and I am truly thankful for it.

I found on Sat.<sup>s</sup> a letter of Capt. Noble's to you here, which perhaps you left by mistake - but nowhere can I see it today! However it is sure to turn up - & I will bring it with me - but I hope you have not been inconvenienced by the want of it.

With regard to other matters which you have touched upon in a spirit, the kindness & gentleness of which makes the subject but the more painful to me - it is grievous to me to revert to them - but I think if you can recollect all that passed here you may see why I should naturally feel anything reflecting on that body to which it is my greatest
