

Take another piece, & (2) ask you to excuse it. And I¹⁵⁹ could write a lot more - but must confine myself now to what I know you will feel a kind interest in. To my utter astonishment I come in for a legacy (originally intended for my dear Father) of £500. - and the living is augmented wth £65, per annum (nominally upwards of £90, but I have to give up some privileges & allowances I had before, which makes it stand thus to me. I ~~am~~ am very thankful for it - especially as it is an acknowledgement of what, in later years, had been painfully overlooked & ignored, his most valuable & faithful services to that estate. And I rejoice to think it comes to us perfectly clean, & without a spot of interest or influence - the will made formerly by my father's lawyer & friend having been superseded by one made by Mr. Brown, a special friend. I desire to thank God for this most unexpected addition to our means, and I humbly beg the grace and direction of the Giver that I may be guided & enabled to make good use of it, for His glory, & the benefit and extension of His Holy Church.

My wife sends kind love & I remain

My dear Arthur

Your very affectionate Old Friend T. W. Webb.

I don't know that I can advise you further about the Reflection. But it would make much difference what construction it is of, --- which did not occur to me before - writing I dare say in haste. -
