

In the creation of this Microfilm record it may have been necessary to use graphic symbols to indicate defects or abnormalities with the original material. To assist the user a key to these symbols is given below.

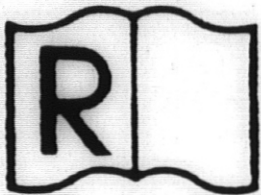

: Signifies that the original document is difficult to read and/or has a tight binding.

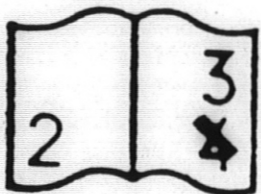

: Signifies that the original document is damaged and/or wrongly bound.

: Signifies that pages or parts of a sequence are missing.

: Signifies that an image has been deliberately repeated.

: Signifies that the indicated sequence of a document is incorrect.

: Signifies that the original is in colour.