

A propos of Counsel's opinion - Thank you very much for your kind information - I will in due time talk to my friend Mr. Trumper upon the subject.

I have at last done what I ought to have done long ago - (I should have done, but that owing to my style of mounting, it caused me some trouble) adopted Mr. Webb's kind advice, & stopped off a trifle of the margin of my speculum, which he (as well as DelaRue) says is now so well figured as the rest. I can hardly at present say for myself whether the change may have been in the atmosphere or in the speculum - but with who knows perfectly well - has not the slightest doubt about it - but anyhow certain it is, that my reflector had "per saltum" reached a marvellous pitch of excellence - & I am alike surprised & charmed with the definition - very good indeed before - but now - "something rich & strange" Jupiter's satellites, for example, perfectly cleaned up from all false light & flare. I have had scarcely any opportunity of overhauling the critical stellar tests.

You will be glad to hear that Good Mr. Berthon is coming to see us tomorrow, & to stay I hope & presume till Saturday. I have brought here that unlucky string about which I fear for so much trouble & all for nothing tho' my stupidity - & with it the folly round which it ought to have been spliced.

My wife unites with me in kindest love, & best thanks, & this sincere hope that your good Mother is quite restored, and below me, my dearest Arthur, your truly affectionate & obliged Friend, See P.S. at the beginning. T. W. Webb.

P.S. I have very nearly forgotten to tell you how much I was with the letter -
My dear Sirs &
I have done it of them, &
Frankly
you really are quite unwearied in doing good - and your most kind letter ought to have had an earlier reply - but it reached this place after I had left it for my duty at Hardwick - whence I returned yesterday evening.

I do not see how we can possibly do better than act at once upon the most kind and valuable advice of Good Dr. Boardman - of whose name I certainly seem to have heard - and to whom I by you will express my very grateful and sincere acknowledgments - though I am perfectly sensible that the favour conferred upon us has been solely for your sake. I see no occasion, under the circumstances, for waiting for any further information from my correspondent in America, as he certainly could not give a better opinion, and in all probability not so good an one. And I will write to him very speedily, to prevent his taking any trouble in the matter. - Please recollect, in the process of the negotiation, that as I never should have had the idea of turning those articles into money, but for yourself, I shall feel perfectly satisfied with anything you think well to accept, even should it be much less than what you have mentioned - as for my wife she would have been
