

137 208 (27)
Reopened to say I recollect distinctly a power in the will given to the Trustees to enter on Tenants' grounds for felling Timber without trespass - but of course I don't know whether I am considered in law a mere tenant, tho' I have paid succession duty. Nor do I know whether, if so, the power to enter the land implies power to cut Timber. — There are other farmer-tenants on parts of the estate, besides Penoye who has