

Thank you again - & more, for the Brit. Mus: Trustees opinion w^{ch} I have communicated to the party concerned. - And thanks for your kind intention also about your dear Mother's poems. I had no idea of less having excelled in that line. - And now I have another favour to ask you ("most honorable man," says A.C.) I have an old ally named Herbert Ingall (1 Champion Grove, Denmark Hill) - a successful dialyte constructor, & a persevering sharp-eyed observer. He used to delight in attending our meetings, introduced by Rutton Birt, but he doubts whether the latter comes now, & has never been to Burlington House Meeting, & is quite shy about it, & asks if I can help him. I have taken the liberty of telling him that if he will go half an hour before the meeting & send his name to you, you will kindly get him in (I don't think, entre nous, that he could afford to become a Fellow.) - One thing more. I was very much pleased with your paper in Aston: Reg: - you can manage such things capitally. And another thing more. I woulda none of you very big bigwigs at that meeting ~~thought~~ thought of referring to Phil. Trans. 1831 for Sir J. South on ♂. - ditto 1833. - Noble occultations. - - I see in Marthe's note on Aston: Register Report a mention of South, but not a distinct reference. - I have cut out & regummed a bit of Ward's table & he had reversed it in one place - Multum in parvo - Good luck to you & the Meeting -
Your affect. old friend
