

Hardwick Vic. 23 Nov. 77

~~217~~ (177)

My dearest Arthur

Very great thanks and more trouble! — and that too of a foolish nature — for I might just as well have asked you last time to get both answers together — mais — mais — be. —

However the matter is this — I had a letter a short time back from Dr. Turby who seems to have been up to his eyes in work — in which he enquires about l'un des nos correspondants les plus actifs i.e. Burton — (I had news of this one!) — he has been sending him some of his letters & brochures for a year or two & has had no reply, — "Puis silence se fait croindre qu'il est encore gravement malade." —

I have not yet answered the Dr. on my