

have sent for - I am so much obliged to you for making me acquainted with him.
I am sorry to record my conviction that D'Arrest's memory wants pelting with rotten Eggs for writing important matters about Nebulae in that equally inconsprehensible and inelegant Danish - Who can tolerate such ugly stuff as Som jæg dog?

(not Canis Major or Minor, but German, doch! -) I must nevertheless attack & turn his position. - The Observatory is cleaned out & a great family of Webs ejected to make room for the proprietor.

- I had forgotten to thank you very much for the interesting paper about your dear Mother - & wish you all success in the revision of that most valuable biography, which no doubt numbers are anxiously looking for.

(I have just looked at Postal Guide & see there is a Moneyer St. East Road, N. Had it been near Plato or Copernicus I might have had a better chance with it.) My wife's kind love. She says Oxley's Essence of Quins did her more good than any medicine.
Yours very affectionately

My dearest Arthur

Thanks for the kind remembrance of us conveyed on a P.C. to which I shd. have replied had not a succession of callers come in & swallowed up all the time. My wife was much knocked up & wearied out with so much travelling day after day - & has been rheumatised since we reached home, but is brightening up, & I think beginning to feel the benefit of her journey. As to old Weston his tooth is mending - It is hoped if stuck up level & buttered with nasty stinking stuff, it will soon be well. -

But we are both very sorry that you have not been as comfortable as we could wish.
Many of the poor have been complaining in the same way, & I suppose it may be something in the season. - Among
