My dearest Arthur

Best thanks for your truly kind friendly letter - my trouble arose from retention & some troublesome consequences from which however I am thankful to say I am getting all right, tho' not at once. —

I brought with me ^{from Cheltenham} - as I thought I did, Glazebrook's Introduction to Optics - but for my entire disgust can find it nowhere after sad loss of time in hunting - hence & hence my enquiry about values of velocity of light. I shall be greatly obliged by Lieut. Michelson, w.th J. St. J. prefer to any other - at your entire convenience.
But a number of other data I meant to have taken from that book - so that it loss is very irksome.

And now, another very great favour will you oblige me by looking over & connecting the enclosed? It seems lower
