My dearest Arthur,

I am very much obliged by the interesting pamphlet you have kindly sent - which I ~~am~~ will send back in a few days. We are all plainly in a very miserable condition -

We hope your Hay Fever is better or at any rate not worse -

Mr. Jackson has written to ask if you will send him the Vol. of Letters for examination - so I suppose he has not quite made up his mind to the purchase - & adds that "any time" will do, as he will be from home, "on an off" - I presume he means "on and off" for
