

Sturdivick Vicarage, Hay, 24 Nov. 1884.

320 (257)

My dearest Arthur,

You will be glad I know to hear that through GOD'S great mercy to me I am preserved in health & able to get through all that is required of me - & I have been most efficiently & tenderly ^{assisted} ~~supported~~ by one kind friend or another throughout - but it is a sad scene. -

There has been a melancholy apportionment among my beloved one's relations & near friends - of personal articles - & there are a few which a gentleman might like to possess - so I write a line just to ask you whether you would care to make a choice among the following -

A good Binocular, that she used to travel with.

A Railway Reading Lamp, new, 5