

Hardwick vicarage, 17 Mar. 83
~~322~~ (260)

My dearest Arthur,

I had been thinking a good deal of you lately, & of writing to you - and you have been thinking of me & sending me a most kind invitation, and most welcome as a proof of your undiminished friendship - But there I regret to add it must stop. I shall not be going anywhere before Easter.

Easter week I have promised to spend with the Wyatts - the following week comes our Bishop's visitation, & before the end of